

Food Handlers Course for Cranford

Date: September 25, 2018

LOCATION: Chisholm Community Center
100 S. Springfield Avenue, Springfield Township, NJ 07081
TIME: 10am – 1pm

Required for any person charged with the responsibility of overseeing the operations, including the supervision of employees engaged in the preparing, processing and sale of food or drink intended for human consumption, be it for on- or off-premises consumption.

The Health Department is conducting a course for food handlers. It will cover multiple hazards that compromise food safety, handwashing & personal hygiene, foodborne illness risk factors and various other topics.

This is NOT a national certification such as Serv Safe; this is a food handlers class for staff and managers.
